

Swedish FAIR TRADE FORUM

October 9-10th, 2009

Malmö, Sweden

Visit Fair Trade Forum in Malmö and get inspiration, deeper knowledge about fair trade, meet producers and companies working with Fair Trade, network and have fun!

Swedish Fair Trade Forum is the meeting place for everyone who is interested in Fair Trade, Fairtrade and ethical trade, both professionals and volunteers. The Forum contains workshops, seminars and an exhibition with a wide range of fair trade companies displaying and selling their products. The Forum is open for everyone and it is free to visit.

Fair Trade Forum in Malmö 2009 will focus on the following themes:

- Fair Trade, sustainability and climate change
- Best practice - successful new fair trade companies in Sweden
- Fair Trade Kids
- Fashion: lectures, panel and a fair fashion show Saturday October 10th
- Consumer power

Date: Friday 9th October and Saturday 10th October

Time: Approximately 9 am - 6 pm both days

Location: Malmö University. 100 meters from Malmö Central Station, 20 minutes from Copenhagen Airport.

Price visitors: To visit is free and no preregistration is necessary.

Prices exhibitors: Exhibitors pay 100 Euros/two days for a small stand or 600 Euros/two days for a large stand and advertisement in the program. Exhibitors have to reserve stands before August 28th.

For more information, please contact project manager Elin Hasselberg:

elin.hasselberg.rk@folkbildning.net or by phone +46 708 624178.

Discover Malmö Fairtrade City

Fair Trade Forum takes place in Malmö, Sweden's third largest city, located in the very south of Sweden, only 30 minutes from Copenhagen. Since 2006 Malmö is the first Fairtrade City in Sweden and offers many interesting shops, cafés and restaurants specialized in fair trade and organic products. You can find a guide to Malmö Fairtrade City here:

www.malmo.se/download/18.76b00688114b7562b52800034250/ENG_EkoFTguide_LagupplostOriginal.pdf

Swedish Fair Trade Forum 2009 is a collaboration between The Swedish Fair Trade Network, Malmö town, Malmö Fairtrade City and Malmö University, and has been given RCE-status

Other cooperation partners are some prominent actors in the Swedish Fair Trade movement as well as a number of organizations at local and national level.